BRITISH MUSEUM

TO THE READER

THIS Catalogue contains the Library of the Reverend and Learned Dr. JOHN OWEN, deceaſed, (ſometime Vice-Chancellor and Dean of Chriſt-Church in Oxon,) a Perſon ſo generally known for a Generous Buyer and great Collector of the beſt Books, that 'tis needleſs further to intimate to the World the great Opportunities he had, his conſtant Readineſs to buy what at any time preſented it ſelf that was rare and uſeful. Among the vaſt Numbers of Books he had peruſed, and was for ſeveral late Years poſſeſſed of, I find theſe enſuing larger Volumes preſerved, and eſteemed by him as the Choice and Curious to his Death, viz. his Greek and Latin Fathers, his different Editions of the Councils, his Church-Hiſtories, and Rabbinical Authors, together with great variety of the Bibles in the Oriental Languages; not to mention his almoſt compleat Collection of the Hiſtorians, Poets, Geographers, Philologers, and Lexicographers, in Greek, Latin, &c. All which conſidered together, perhaps for their Number are not to be parallel'd, or upon any terms to be procured, when Gentlemen are deſirous of, or have a real Occaſion for the peruſal of them. And leſt what I have hinted, ſhould be termed a formal Commendation, rather than a true Character of the Books, I leave the Catalogue to the Judgment of Gentlemen the Buyers, and invite them for one whole Week before the Sale, at the uſual Hours, to a critical View and thorow Examination of them, as to their Editions and Binding.

This SALE will begin on Monday the 26*th* of May, 1684. at the Auction-Houſe in Ave-Mary-Lane, over againſt the Black-Swan, near Ludgate-Street, at Nine of the Clock in the Morning till Twelve, and from Two in the Afternoon to Six, and there continue daily till all the Books be ſold.

Conditions.

Conditions of Sale.

I. THat he who bids moſt, is the Buyer ; and if any Difference ariſe, which the Company cannot decide, then the Book or Books ſhall be forthwith expoſed to Sale again.

II. That all the Books in this Catalogue, not otherwiſe expreſſed, (for ought we know) are perfect ; but if any of them appear to be otherwiſe before they be taken away, the Buyer ſhall have his Choice of taking or leaving them.

III. That the Money for the Book or Books ſo bought, is to be pay'd by the Buyer within one Month after the Auction is ended, at the Place where they are ſold ; where, upon Payment thereof, the Book or Books ſhall be delivered for the Month aforeſaid.

IV. The Books will be expoſed to view for one whole Week before the time of Sale, being generally fair, and well-bound, ſufficiently inviting, both as to their Editions and Binding, from the Hours of Nine in the Morning to Twelve, and from Two to Six in the Evening.

TO THE READER.

THIS Catalogue Conſiſts Perfectly of Engliſh Books, being the Labours and well cultivated Writings of the beſt Engliſh Authors, which I the rather for once eſſayed, to Expoſe to Sale by way of Auction, thereby to Convince the World that all Learning and Uſeful Knowledg is not contained in Forreign Languages. Our own Nation having been Productive of Authors ſo Valuable, that the whole World have admired their Works, and payed a Veneration to their Names: Amongſt others the Engliſh Theologiſts have been Univerſally Famed, As indeed our other Authors, viz. Hiſtorians, Poets, Philologers, &c. have been ſo happy in their Writings as to have an equal Eſteem and Reputation with the moſt Learned Perſons abroad. In ſhort, this Collection evidently manifeſts what great variety of Incomparable Diſcourſes, and Excellent Tracts have been ſucceſſively and lately Publiſhed in our own Language, of all Subjects ſo many, and in Volumes ſo Numerous, and being Generally ſo uſeful, that its hardly poſſible for any one to be ſo well Furniſhed, but here he may make a conſiderable Augmentation to his Study and Acceſſion to his Knowledge if he pleaſe.

This Auction will begin on Monday the 16th. Day of June at Mr. Bridges's Coffee-Houſe in Popes-Head Alley oppoſite to the Royal Exchange, at Nine of the Clock in the Morning, till Twelve, and from Two in the Afternoon, to Six, and there continue daily till all the Books are ſold.

The Conditions of Sale are theſe;

1. That he who bids moſt is the Buyer; and if any Difference ariſe, which the Company cannot decide, then the Book or Books ſhall be expoſed to Sale again.

2. That all the Books in this Catalogue, not otherwiſe expreſſed (for ought we know) are perfect; but if any of them appear to be otherwiſe before they be taken away, the Buyer ſhall have his Choice of taking or leaving them.

3. That the Money for the Book or Books ſo bought, is to be paid within one Month after the Sale is ended, at the place where they are ſold, where, upon Payment thereof, the Book or Books ſhall be delivered for the Month aforeſaid.

The Books being generally inviteing as to their Condition and Binding, will be expoſed to View for one whole Week before the Sale, from Nine to twelve in the Morning, and from two till Six in the Evening.

ADVERTISEMENT.

To the READER.

THis Sale conſiſts of the whole Library of the Worſhipful Sir Jonas Moor, deceaſed, a perſon of ſo great worth and general eſteem for his admirable Skill in moſt parts of the Mathematicks, that the Iſſues of his Brain already publiſhed in that Science are ample teſtimonies of his abilities. The Mathematical part of the Library, as it was with great care and vaſt expence procured, ſo if we conſider that great variety there is in moſt Languages of that faculty, is not (to ſpeak modeſtly) eaſily parallel'd. The Geographical and Hiſtorical part, tho they cannot pretend to Number, yet will appear to be very valuable as to their Price, and choice as to their Kind, eſpecially the Engliſh Part, which preſents you with a conſiderable number towards the Collection he ſeem'd to deſign to make of the Engliſh Hiſtory in general, and of the Lives of the Kings of England in particular: Which may be enough to intimate by way of Invitation to all the Lovers of Curioſities in Learning.

This Auction will begin the 3*d* day of November, 1684. at the Auction-Houſe in Ave-Mary-Lane, over againſt the Black-Swan, near Ludgate-Street, at Nine of the Clock in the Morning till Twelve, and from Two in the Afternoon to Six, and there continue daily till all the Books are ſold.

TO THE READER.

T*HIS Auction contains the Libraries of the Reverend Mr.* Tho. Lye, late of Clapham near London Deceaſed; and of Mr. Thomas Jennings of London; the former I might repreſent to the World, as having been an example of ſingular piety accompanied with a great integrity of mind, and indefatigable induſtry to do good, ſufficiently manifeſted to all that had any knowledg of him. The latter an ingenious Citizen, who by conſtant Reading, and writing after the beſt Divines, arrived to a large and unuſual knowledg in moſt points of Divinity; his Engliſh Library here expoſed, is both for Number and Quality conſiderable; his knowledg in books made him capable of diſtinguiſhing and chuſing the beſt, and his extraordinary paſſion and love to them, prompted him to buy whatever was valuable, that came within his ability to purchaſe, which without any further preamble, is all that I think neceſſary to ſay, except to apologize for the imperfect deſcriptions that are made of many excellent Books, the many palbable and viſible errors of the Catalogue occaſioned by the haſty printing, and neceſſary abſence of a proper perſon to correct them.

This Auction will begin on Monday the 17 day of November 1684. at Mr. Bridges Coffee-houſe in Popes Head Ally, over againſt the Royal Exchange in Cornhill, from the hours of 9 in the Morning to 12, and from 2 to 6 in the afternoon, and there continue dayly till all the Books are ſold.

Conditions of Sale.

1. THAT he who bids moſt is the Buyer ; and if any difference ariſeth, the ſame Book or Books to be expoſed again to Sale.

2. That the books in this Catalogue (not otherwiſe expreſſed) are for ought we know perfect ; but if any of them appear to be otherwiſe before they be taken away, the buyer ſhall have his choice of leaving or taking them.

3. That the Money for the book or books ſo bought, is to be paid by the buyer within one Month after the Auction or Sale is ended, at the place of Sale; where upon payment thereof the book or books ſo bought ſhall be ready to be delivered within the month aforeſaid.

4. That theſe books are to be ſeen for one whole week before the Auction begins, from Nine till Twelve in the Morning, and from Two till Six in the Afternoon, by any Gentlemen that pleaſe to repair to the abovementioned place.

5. That every Perſon not known to ſome of the company, do give in his Name and place of Abode (or earneſt in part of the books by him bought, if required) to the end, that the Auction may be managed with honeſty and juſtice to all, ſo as to prevent the inconveniences that have hitherto enſued by the forgetfulneſs of ſome, and deſign of others, in leaving ſeveral parcels of books on the hands of the Undertakers, to their prejudice, and to the abuſe of others that they have out of vanity or humour outbid.

TO THE READER

THIS CATALOGUE conſiſts principally of the Library of the Right Reverend and Learned Prelate, Dr. JOHN WARNER, (formerly Lord-Biſhop of Rocheſter,) containing ſo many valuable and ſcarce Books in Divinity, (viz. a Collection of Greek and Latin Fathers, Councils, Church-Hiſtorians, ancient and modern Commentators of prime Uſe, and Note) with great variety of Choice Books in Hiſtory, Philology, Mathematicks, and of all other ſorts of Gentile Learning, that to deſcribe them further by way of Recommendation, would be a Reflection on the Judgment, and a Detainment of the intelligent Reader from the Pleaſure, and Benefit that uſually attends the peruſal of the Names and Editions of ſo many conſiderable and excellent Books: I leave him therefore to judg of them himſelf, and invite him to the Sight and Examination of them for one whole Week before the Sale begins.

This SALE will begin on Monday, the 16*th* of February, 168$\frac{4}{5}$, at the Auction-Houſe in Ave-Mary-Lane, over againſt the Black-Swan, near Ludgate-Street, at Nine of the Clock in the Morning till Twelve, and from Two in the Afternoon to Six, and there continue daily till all the Books be ſold.

Con-

Conditions of Sale.

I. THat he who bids moſt is the Buyer; and if any Difference ariſe, which the Company cannot decide, then the Book or Books ſhall forthwith be expoſed to Sale again.

II. That all the Books in this Catalogue, not otherwiſe expreſſed, (for ought we know) are perfect; but if any of them appear to be otherwiſe before they be taken away, the Buyer ſhall have his Choice of taking or leaving them.

III. That the Money for the Book or Books ſo bought, is to be paid by the Buyer within one Month after the Auction is ended, at the place where they are ſold; where, upon the Payment thereof, the Book or Books ſhall be delivered for the Month aforeſaid.

IV. The Books will be expoſed to view for one whole Week before the time of Sale, being generally fair and well-bound, from the Hours of Nine in the Morning to Twelve, and from Two to Six in the Evening.

BRITISH MUSEUM

To the READER.

THis Catalogue contains the Library of (Dr. Richard Lee of Kings-Hatfield in Hartfordshire, lately deceaſed) conſiſting of the various Editions of the Bible, in the Oriental Languages, ſeveral of the beſt Latin and Greek Fathers, Commentators Ancient and Modern, Latin and Engliſh, &c. of the moſt general Uſe, and greateſt Eſteem in their time, in all Volumes, (will be expoſed to Sale by way of Auction, or who bids moſt) a Method of Sale ſo long practiſed, and ſtill continued in great reputation with the Reverend and Learned Clergy of the City of London, that it hath incouraged and laid the Foundation of this attempt in the County of Hartford, not without ſome probable Proſpect that the Worthy and Intelligent Clergy thereof, will heartily countenance, and readily promote ſo commendable an Eſſay, apparently tending to the Improvement of Learning in general, and ſo experimentally ſerviceable, and really beneficial to the Relicts and Executors of Divines, and Gentlemen, in the diſpoſal of their Libraries.

This Sale will begin on Tueſday the 28*th of* April 1685. at the Parſonage-houſe in Hatfield, at One of the Clock exactly; and ſo continue daily, from 9 to 12 in the Morning, and from 2 to 7 in the Evening, till all the Books are ſold: Therefore all Clergymen, Gentlemen, &c. are deſired to be preſent exactly at the hour of Sale, the Books being ſold in the order as Printed in the Catalogue, and thoſe uſually are, eſpecially in this, the choiceſt.

Conditions of Sale.

I. That he who bids moſt is the Buyer; and if any Difference ariſe, which the Company cannot decide, then the Book or Books ſhall forthwith be expoſed to Sale again.

II. That all the Books in this Catalogue, not otherwiſe expreſſed, (for ought we know) are perfect; but if any of them appear to be otherwiſe before they be taken away, the Buyer ſhall have his Choice of taking or leaving them.

III. That the Money for the Book or Books ſo bought, is to be paid by the Buyer at the time and place of Sale; where upon Payment thereof, the Book or Books ſhall be delivered.

IV. That the Books will be expoſed to view all Monday the 27th, and the preceding part of Tueſday, before the hour prefixt for Sale, to all Perſons that pleaſe to repair to the aforementioned Parſonage-houſe in Hatfield.

V. That for the Conveniency of Clergymen, Gentlemen, &c. that cannot poſſibly be preſent in Perſon, or by Proxy, if they pleaſe to ſend their Commiſſion in time, with Directions to the Parſonage-houſe in Hatfield, a diſtinct account of the Number and Page of any Book or Books that they deſire to have bought, and the Price they will give, ſignifying their Names and place of Abode, it ſhall be faithfully managed for them by the Perſons attending the Auction.

BRITISH MUSEUM

READER

THis Sale Conſiſts of the Libraries of two Learned Men deceaſed; of whom much might be ſaid as to their Skill and Knowledge of the beſt Books, however obſerving that its not the great Names, or mighty Vogue that the Proprietors have had in the World, but the ſcarcity and uſefullneſs of the Books that are Expoſed, that do really recommend them to the Gentlemen that Buy, I leave all Perſons to Judge as they pleaſe, to cenſure or approve as they think fit, not doubting but all that are unprejudiced will agree with me in this modeſt Character of the enſuing Catalogue, viz. That in moſt parts of it there are many choice and conſiderable Books in Divinity, Hiſtory, Philology, Phyſick, &c. in Greek and Latin, accompanied with a large Collection of Engliſh Books in all Volumes.

This Auction will begin on Monday the 19th. day of October, 1685. at Mr. Bridges Coffee-houſe in Popes Alley, over againſt the Royal Exchange in Cornhill, from the hours of Nine in the Morning to Twelve, from Two to Six in the Afternoon, and there continue dayly till all the Books are ſold.

Conditions of SALE.

1. THAT he who bids moſt is the Buyer; and if any difference ariſeth, the ſame Book or Books to be Expoſed again to Sale.

2. That the Books in this Catalogue (not otherwiſe expreſſed) are for ought we know perfect; but if any of them appear to be otherwiſe before they be taken away, the buyer ſhall have his choice of leaving or taking them.

3. That the Money for the Book or Books ſo bought, is to be paid by the buyer within one Month after the Auction or Sale is ended, at the place of Sale; where upon payment thereof the Book or Books ſo bought ſhall be ready to be delivered within the Month aforeſaid.

4. That theſe Books are to be ſeen for one whole week before the Auction begins, from Nine till Twelve in the Morning, and from Two till Six in the Afternoon, by any Gentlemen that pleaſe to repair to the above-mentioned place.

5. That every Perſon not known to ſome of the company, do give in his Name and place of Abode (or earneſt in part of the books by him bought, if required,) to the end, that the Auction may be managed with honeſty and juſtice to all, ſo as to prevent the inconveniences that have hitherto enſued by the forgetfulneſs of ſome, and deſign of others, in leaving ſeveral parcels of Books on the hands of the Undertakers, to their prejudice, and to the abuſe of others that they have out of vanity or humour outbid.

THis Collection of Engliſh Books in all Volumes, and of moſt Sciences will be expoſed to Sale by Auction, with Duplicates of ſeveral valuable Books, Bound and in Quires, with theſe Printed in the Catalogue, as alſo moſt ſorts of Bibles of the beſt Prints; together with Teſtaments, Common Prayers and Singing Pſalms, Book of Homilies, 39 Articles, and Canons, &c. which Propoſal in this way of Sale, ſo manifeſtly beneficial to the Purchaſers, will we hope be very acceptable, becauſe it hath not yet been Eſſayd by any, and hath in its firſt appearance a ſeeming tendency to further the knowledge of ignorant People in the beſt things at the eaſieſt rate, and may upon Charitable Gentlemen, and Reverend Clergymen have this probable effect, that the Cheapneſs of theſe ſo abſolutely neceſſary Books ſo diſpoſed of, may invite them to beſtow ſome Numbers among their poor Neighbours or Pariſhioners, who are not able to purchaſe what they are capable of reading to their benefit. In-ſhort what might be further ſaid on this occaſion would exceed the bounds of an Auctionary Preface, therefore in Convenient time preceding this Sale, Notice ſhall be given of the days of Sale for the aforeſaid Bibles, Teſtaments, Service Books, Singing Pſalms, Book of Homilies, &c. At which time or days, Propoſals ſhall be made, of the Conditions and Method of ſelling them, Apparently advantagious and ſufficiently Beneficial to the reſpective Buyers.

This Sale will begin on Monday the 30*th* day of November 1685. at Petty-Canon-Hall in Petty-Canon-Alley on the Northſide of St. Paul's Church-yard, entring into Pater-Noſter-Row, from the hours of 9 in the Morning to 12 and from 2 to 6 in the Evenving till all the Books are Sould.

Conditions of Sale.

1. THAT he who bids moſt is the Buyer; and if any difference ariſeth, the ſame Book or Books to be expoſed again to Sale.

2. That the Books in this Catalogue (not otherwiſe expreſſed) are for ought we know perfect; but if any of them appear to be otherwiſe before they be taken away, the Buyer ſhall have his choice of leaving or taking them.

3. That the Money for the Book or Books ſo bought, is to be paid by the Buyer within one Month after the Auction or Sale is ended, at the place of Sale; where upon payment thereof the Book or Books ſo bought ſhall be ready to be delivered within the Month aforeſaid.

4. That every Perſon not known to ſome of the Company, do give in his Name and place of Abode (or earneſt in part of the Books by him bought, if required,) to the end, that the Auction may be managed with honeſty and juſtice to all, ſo as to prevent the inconveniences that have hitherto enſued by the forgetfulneſs of ſome, and deſign of others, in leaving ſeveral parcels of Books on the hands of the Undertakers, to their prejudice, and to the abuſe of others that they have out of vanity or humour outbid.

5. That theſe Books are to be ſeen together with the Bibles, Teſtaments, Common Prayers and Singing Pſalms, Book of Homilies, 39 Articles, and Canons, &c. for one whole Week before the Auction begins, from Nine till Twelve in the Morning, and from Two till Six in the Afternoon, by any Gentlemen that pleaſe to repair to the above-mentioned place.

For the other Three-peny Common-Prayers, in Twelves and Twenty-fours, they have been lately ſent to the Bookſellers, and for Services to bind with the ſeveral ſorts of Bibles, all which are altered to the preſent King and Royal Family, but moſt of them are New throughout. And Singing Pſalms, which are all well known to Bookſellers, for whom this is intended. It is not thought needful to particularize the prizes of them: Every Bible may be fitted with proper Services and Pſalms all clean and perfect, and eſpecially the large twelves Bible, for which we have lately Printed ſeveral ſheets to ſupply others that were mildew'd and rotten.

To the READER.

T*HIS* Catalogue conſiſts of ſo many Excellent Books of the beſt Authors, that have treated of the Subjects mentioned in the Title Page, that I will not queſtion the Judgment of the Gentlemen the Buyers, by giving a particular Recommendatory Character of them. The Hiſtorical Part, both Forreign and Domeſtick, is the beſt and compleateſt that hath hitherto been preſented to the World; and if the names of many Authors and their Hiſtories, not hitherto knowable, hath been acceptable, and confeſſedly uſeful to ſeveral Gentlemen, I may much more reaſonably promiſe to my ſelf the expoſing the Books this way to Sale, will be extreamly deſirable, eſpecially if they will be pleaſed to conſider, that not one half of them mentioned in the enſuing Catalogue are by reaſon of their ſcarcity, at all times to be found, or at any Rate procured, when really wanted. I might further intimate, That ſome of the valuable Books are of the great Paper, and moſt of them as to their Binding, ſufficiently inviting, anſwering the preſent Mode, and commendable modern Faſhion of moſt Bookiſh Gentlemens Libraries, being generally curiouſly and richly bound.

This Sale will begin on Monday the Eighth day of February, 168$\frac{5}{6}$, at Bridges Coffee Houſe, in Popes Head Alley, in Cornhil, from the Hours of 9 to 12 in the Morning, and from 2 in the Afternoon till 7 in the Evening, continuing daily till all the Books are ſold.

Conditions of Sale.

I. THat he who bids moſt, is the Buyer, and if any Difference ariſe which the Company cannot decide, then the Book or Books ſhall forthwith be Expoſed to Sale again.

II. That all the Books in this Catalogue, not otherwiſe expreſſed, (for ought we know) are perfect; but if any of them appear to be otherwiſe before they be taken away , the Buyer ſhall have his Choice of taking or leaving them.

III. That the Money for the Book or Books ſo bought, is to be paid at the Place of Sale within a Fortnight after the Auction is ended; where the Book or Books ſo bought, ſhall be ready to be delivered.

IV. That the Books will be expoſed to view from 9 to 12 in the Morning, and from 2 to 6 in the Evening, for one whole Week preceding the Sale, to all Gentlemen, &c. which by the Undertaker is deſired, the Books being extraordinarily qualified as to the binding, &c.
